Privacy/Confidentiality Policy:

MITT (Shiloh Christian Church) restricts access to student information only to those who have business reasons to know such information. In order to provide adequate safeguards over customers' credit card data MITT will adhere to the following minimum technical specifications:

Student information, including credit card data, must be reasonably secured against disclosure and modification. MITT will periodically evaluate, based on results of testing and monitoring, any material changes to the service providers' operations. Procedures for timely deposit of credit card transactions and safe and proper handling of the data are followed.

This site contains links to other sites of companies that provide related services that enable Gifts of Excellence clients to use Gifts of Excellence services, such as Internet Service Providers, software development companies and Sponsoring Banks. Gifts of Excellence is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites. Gifts of Excellence does not share merchant information except in the normal course of business when it is necessary for the two companies to establish the service desired by the merchant. However, the information exchanged is used only for the establishment of that service.

Security

Gifts of Excellence has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. A state-of-the-art firewall separates our Web pages and Web data from unauthorized access. The credit card information provided in the course of on-line transactions between our merchant clients (Shiloh Christian Church-MITT) and (Signee of this form) is received from and transmitted to our merchants' secure servers from our secure server. All transaction data is encrypted using 128 bit SSL encryption, except for those transactions which originate from outside the United States, which are encrypted using 40 bit SSL encryption.
