

BBL417—Protocol for the Prophetic Never before in history has the prophetic been needed more and never before has it been so misunderstood and misused. This course of study provides a biblical format for the prophetic ministry and gives proper safeguards that must be observed. When this ministry is in a biblical balance, it can be a great blessing to the Body of Christ and the world. Text: “The Voice of God” by Cindy Jacobs $14.00

HHS420 - Tabernacle in the Wilderness. This course provides a great understanding of the Tabernacle in the Wilderness. Levy.” $19.00

NTS211 - The Gospel of Mark provides a verse by verse study on the Book of Mark with emphasis on Biblical Life Applications that each believer can put to use in his life. Text: Mark, The Humanity of Christ John MacArthur $6.99

OTS 300 Tabernacle of David: The Higher Worship of Mount Zion - The veil-less tent upon Mount Zion reveals the higher dimension of worship that our God seeks (John 4:24). David's Tabernacle also reveals the New Covenant standard. The tent housed the Ark of the Covenant. The veiled Ark speaks of the Old Covenant, whereas the unveiled Ark speaks of the New Covenant. David had entered into a dimension that the church is just rediscovering: the reality of the rent veil, the reality of the manifest presence of God, and the qualifications that will allow us to ascent the "Holy Hill." This commentary will challenge you to be a true worshipper! Text: Tabernacle of David: The Higher Worship of Mount Zion - By: Daniel G. Caram $14.00

WELCOME

In 2003, the Middlesex Institute of Theology and Technology (MITT) offered its first curriculum of courses. Six years earlier, the Lord gave Pastor Paul Hylton the vision to establish a school that would serve the towns of the Middlesex County of Connecticut by providing sound biblical training and technical training. Pastor Paul wanted to be able to offer the highest quality of biblical education to Christians aspiring to ministry and those desiring to know more about the Word of God. He also wanted to offer affordable computer training.

Statement of Purpose

Middlesex Institute of Theology and Technology (MITT) was established for the express purpose of training and developing competent Christian leaders, from all walks of life, who are prepared to take the Gospel of Jesus Christ to a changing world.

The principal purpose of MITT is to provide a program of studies based on sound biblical training, a comprehensive understanding of theological principles as established in the Word of God, and applications of such truth to Christian life and service. These studies are offered in two tracks: theological education and spiritual enrichment. Theological education prepares Christians for ministerial service positions through a credit-based curriculum. Spiritual enrichment helps to cultivate a believer's spiritual development and to strengthen and support the local church.

MITT also provides training in computer technology. The courses offered through the technological arm of MITT are designed to increase the student's ability to use the tools of technology to enhance their research, preparation, and presentation of the Gospel. These studies will also serve to train and enrich members of the general community seeking to advance their knowledge of computers and technical skills for personal and professional reasons.
