

MITT & Credit Free Academy

“Learning experiences for everyone”

MITT

The principal purpose of MITT is to provide a program of studies based on sound biblical training, a comprehensive understanding of theological principles as established in the Word of God, and applications of such truth to Christian life and service.

Our program provides students with a solid foundation from which to understand the fundamentals of the Bible, Christianity, Christian theology and the Christian church. Students will gain understanding of the origin and contents of the Bible and will be equipped to use the Bible to address contemporary issues.

Middlesex Institute of Theology & Technology

Undergraduate Courses

SYS201 Systematic Theology II - Looking at the Bible from a Full Gospel perspective, uncover what is taught about angels, the church, divine healings, last things, etc. Biblical doctrine is not complex or mystical. “Systematic” refers to something being put into a system. Systematic theology is, therefore, the division of theology into systems that explain its various areas.

Tuesdays 7:30-8:55 p.m.

Instructor: Rev. Patricia Carroll

BBL205 The Gifts of the Holy Spirit - Upon completion of this course the student will be able to identify the gifts and understand how they work.

Tuesdays 6:00 - 7:25 p.m.

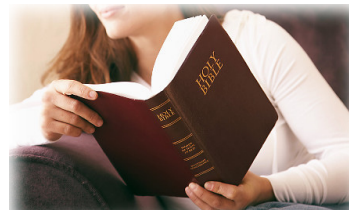

Instructor: Rev. Yvonne Gallaher

THE101 How to Study Your Bible - A dynamic guide to cultivating step-by-step study of the Bible. Learn how to understand and use your Bible effectively.

Thursdays 6:00 - 7:25 p.m.

Instructor: Pastor William McKissick

OTS100 Old Testament Survey Introduces an approach to these 39 books from the perspective of an overview methodology, wherein we will explore purpose and historical settings, as well as relevance for today.

Saturdays 9:00-10:30 a.m.

Instructor: Rev. Patricia Carroll

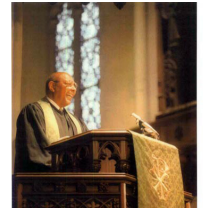

Graduate Courses

NTS 512 The Pastoral Epistles

An expository and exegetical study of I and II Timothy and Titus with emphasis on their exegetical and interpretive problems and on their theology and practical relevance for society and the Church, especially Church leadership.

Thursdays 7:30-8:55 p.m.

Instructor: Dr. Dennis Johnson

CED503 Spiritual Formation

This module provides a variety of concepts in using christian education and discipleship to promote spiritual maturity within the local church.
